College Profile

What is the College of Mount St. Joseph educational experience? It's learning through action – serving others, graduate-level research, paid co-op positions, and leadership development. It's a Catholic liberal arts education that helps you develop the knowledge to make a difference and the integrity to lead others.

The foundation of a Mount education comes from career-minded academic programs combined with dedicated support services and a 11:1 student-to-faculty ratio. New programs include a major in interactive media design & computing as well as minors in coaching and Spanish. The Academic Exploration Program, the Learning Center and personal advising are a few examples of the support that is available to help you achieve your academic goals.

At the Mount, you're encouraged to take your lessons outside of the classroom, into the community. Through the Service Learning Program, students earn academic credit while volunteering to feed the hungry, building homes for Habitat for Humanity, or comforting the elderly. The Cultural Immersion program offers the chance to live, learn and work amidst other cultures. The Cooperative Education program, available for all majors, is a way for students to gain valuable, paid career experience while validating their choice of a major.

Student-athletes are among the Mount's most active leaders on campus. Competing in the Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference, the Mount fields more than 20 NCAA Division III sports teams. The newest lineup, men's volleyball, begins in spring 2010. Students also participate in 30 student-run clubs and organizations including Student Government Association, Black Student Union and MSJ Lions Band.

The Mount is committed to working with students to explore all financial aid options, especially eligibility for financial assistance including scholarships. In 2008-2009, 99 percent of full-time freshmen received some sort of gift aid; more than 10 million dollars in grants and scholarships were received by Mount students.

Numerous Fortune 500 and Fortune 1000 companies are headquartered in Cincinnati. Procter & Gamble, The Kroger Company, and Fifth Third Bank, among others, contribute to Cincinnati's foundation while Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center is among the nations' top children's hospitals. Mount Cooperative Education students are hired by more than 100 hospitals, businesses and nonprofit organizations of Greater Cincinnati.

Boasting a vibrant commitment to the arts, Cincinnatians enjoy the Contemporary Arts Center, Cincinnati Art Museum, Aronoff Center, Cincinnati Playhouse in the Park, Music Hall, and a varied supply of art galleries. Mount students often incorporate Cincinnati's art exhibits and performances into their studies.

Cincinnati knows sports. Cincinnati is also home to the Flying Pig Marathon every May and the Master's and Women's Open tennis tournament every August.

Historical neighborhoods such as Mount Adams, Clifton and Over-the-Rhine make good architectural and cultural adventures, while additional entertainment options are just across the Ohio River in Newport, Covington and Mainstrasse of Northern Kentucky.

Mission in Action

The College of Mount St. Joseph is a Catholic academic community grounded in the spiritual values and vision of its founders, the Sisters of Charity. At the heart of the Mount's mission and heritage is an emphasis on ethical leadership through service. Ethical leadership celebrates the return of virtue, character and personal honor to their rightful place as the foundation of education. This commitment inspires the College's interdisciplinary liberal arts and professional curricula, which equips students to live with integrity, to promote justice, and to seek the truth in their professions and communities.

Service opportunities complement academics and student life while fostering a culture of learning informed by charity. In the Service Learning Program, students apply classroom knowledge while volunteering in social and environmental settings to feed the hungry, build homes for Habitat for Humanity and comfort the elderly. The Cultural Immersion program offers the chance to live, learn and work amidst other cultures. In serving others, students cultivate a greater understanding of social problems, an appreciation for the cultural diversity of other people, as well as a commitment to volunteerism and an understanding of its connection to citizenship.

Campus Ministry infuses all aspects of faith into the Mount's culture and celebrates spiritual exploration. Faith sharing programs, Mass, retreats, and other planned events help awaken and deepen an awareness of God's love and presence within the campus community. Inspired by Catholic social teaching, Campus Ministry encourages students to identify their gifts and to use them for the common good through activities such as Pizza and Ponder, Homelessness Awareness Week, and 30-Hour Famine.

Freshman Kyle Scheck heads into his first spring season for the Lions in 2010.

2010 Season Outlook

The Lions are looking to rebuild this year, after turning in a 2-12 overall mark and 0-8 in the HCAC last spring. Head Coach Del Walters has high hopes for the upcoming season.

Looking to make an impact for the Mount will be sophomore's Kyle Smith, who finished with four overall wins in 2009, and Dustin Hinken who finished the 2009 season with a five wins and was named Honorable Mention All-HCAC.

"Kyle really began to make strides in the middle of the season, and became very consistent at the end," Head Coach Del Walters said. "Dustin had the most wins last season because of his toughness and will. For that he was rewarded with an HCAC Honorable Mention award."

The Mount also has several other returning players which they hope can continue to improve upon what they started last year. Junior Price Combs finished the year with three wins as did sophomores Spencer Rickert and Jacob Faust. Despite the small number of returners for the Mount they do have a group of incoming freshman who all have a shot at making a difference as soon as the season starts.

"All of the freshman who will be competing will have a major impact," Walters adds. "Since the fall they have really formed a bond and they want to do whatever it takes to win."

Those freshmen are: Colin Barrett, Tyler Esham, Kyle Scheck, Clayton Steinriede, and Max Withrow, and all are expected to contribute and help the team throughout the season.

During the year Coach Walters has several goals he hopes to accomplish as a team, many of which are dealing with improving as a team.

"Our goals are to continue to evolve as a group both mentally and physical," Walters states. "We have a strong core of young talent to go along with some veteran leadership, and putting those two elements together should enable us to be very competitive in both non-conference, and conference play."

"The players worked very hard on their game in the off-season, and it showed with our efforts during the fall with a 2-0 record against good competition. I really believe that success will carry over into the spring."

Coach Walters said he knows that the team has certain strengths and weaknesses, and hopes to put a winning team on the courts this fall.

"Our overall talent will be our biggest strength, our practices will be very competitive and they will really push one another," Walters says. "The only weakness I see is our inexperience. We will have a lot of first-year players trying to compete at a high level. Again my hope is that by them getting their feet wet this past fall, it will not be much of a factor this spring."

Walters also places great emphasis on leadership, and the tremendous effect it can have on a team. Coach Walters has different ideas than most about the style of leadership he expects out of this year's group, not putting all of the pressure on just a select few but rather the team as a whole.

"I'm looking for group leadership," Walters states. "I expect every player to play a leadership role at different points in the season. Of course you have to have the guidance of those that have a little more experience, but we are such a young team we will have to rely on one another."

The Lions are also looking forward to making a strong push up the conference standings and put together a string of conference wins. As always the HCAC will be no easy task for the Mount, with several very strong teams the Lions will need to get through to reach the top.

"I expect the conference to be very competitive," Walters says. "As always, Transylvania is the team that sets the bar. Rose-Hulman and Defiance had great seasons last year, while Franklin, Manchester, Hanover and Anderson all return good talent as well. This year because of the strides that we've made, the HCAC should be tough across the board and I'm excited to see it all unfold."

Always hoping to improve is what makes teams successful, when players are trying to constantly make not only themselves better but the team better as a whole, and great things can happen, says Walters.

"We feel we need to be in better condition, continue to stress the fundamentals, and play the mental part of the game better to be successful," Walters adds. "We compete in a lot of matches in a short period of time, so we will have to bring it physically and mentally every day."

Throughout the offseason Coach Walters has made several things clear, they have worked very hard, they are coming together as a team, and they will improve. While doing this Walters has repeated the same phrase, "We have arrived" over and over again to his players.

"The one thing I have stressed and pointed out since the men began in the fall is that phrase," Walters states. "We have a great core of talent, now it's time to be where we should, in the thick of the HCAC race for a championship."

Coach Walters is very excited to see what this coming season will bring, with high hopes of turning the program around and producing a winning season.

"Since I arrived three years ago, this unit is the first I've had where the majority are tennis only guys," Walters says. "We have 11 players on our roster and I'm looking forward to competing. The guys have worked hard to be the best they possibly can be. Now we are at the point where we are not just hoping, but expecting to win. We are looking to face the challenges head on."

In 2000 the Mount placed fourth out of seven teams. The Mount hosted the conference tournament in 2001 and finished in sixth place with 21 points. The Lions gained points from Eric Goshorn, Clint Adkins, Craig Hoerst, Ryan Coslett, Jake Poteet, Alex Wehrum, and Jeff Hershner. Eric Goshorn was also named to the All-Conference team.

The 2002 season saw the Lions defeat Defiance College on the road, 6-3. Even though the Mount did not claim any HCAC wins in the regular season they did score points against Hanover College in each match-up. In the first match-up with Hanover, Joe Hartkemeyer won at second singles; in the second match-up Hartkemeyer won at first singles and Andrew Hall won at sixth singles.

The 2005 season saw the Mount go 1-10 overall and 0-6 in the HCAC. They did not win any sets in HCAC play during play last spring.

In 2006 the Lions finished with an overall record of 4-13. The Mount struggled early in the season, losing 12 of their first 14 matches and finished eighth in the HCAC tournament.

The Lions posted a 3-9 overall record in 2007 while going winless in the conference with an 0-6 record. They did not qualify for the HCAC Tournament.

The Mount had an 0-8 record in the conference in 2008, en route to an overall mark of 4-10. They did not qualify to the HCAC Tournament, won by Transylvania.
